

JOB POSTING

Sawmill Workers

Papasay Value-Added Wood Products (PVAWP) is looking to hire Sawmill Workers to work in our value-added Sawmill located at Bingwi Neyaashi Anishinaabek's reserve land, at Sand Point First Nation. This will be an ongoing recruitment, with the Sawmill Manager keeping all resumes on file. The first employee is to start immediately, with new hires occurring as the Sawmill operation begins to grow. These positions will be part-time/seasonal positions to start. Employees will be responsible for their own transportation to and from the Sawmill, and are welcome to use the BNA bunks for accommodation if required for the duration of their employment.

Salary will be remunerated with education and experience.

PVAWP is looking to the BNA membership first for its employees. If no interested members apply, PVAWP will look to First Nation members of other communities, and then to non-indigenous community.

Interested Members should forward their resume with cover letter to:
