Primary Responsibilities:

Working as a team member within the healing lodge and in conjunction with the First Nation communities in the area and under the direction of the Executive Coordinator, the cook is responsible for:

- Preparing healthy meals for the clientele enrolled in programs at Biidaaban Healing Lodge which comply with the Canada Food Guide.
- Ensuring that menus are designed and developed a week prior to residential treatment programs and forwarded to the Executive Coordinator.
- Providing a detailed budget and grocery list prior to any programs facilitated by Biidaaban Healing Lodge
- Ensuring that the kitchen and dining areas are kept clean and orderly
- Ability to provide community-based workshops with regards to participant based activities related to cooking initiatives
- A job description is available upon request.

Qualifications:

- A high school diploma or equivalent
- Safe food handling skills
- One year of experience preferred or a minimum of one-year related work experience
- Demonstrated exceptional customer service skills, willing to go beyond the basics
- Ability to work under supervision and follow standard procedures
- Personal and professional integrity, appearance and demeanor
- Embodies our value behaviors, service spirit, team spirit and the spirit of progress
- Experience working with First Nation's individuals, families and communities, and a working knowledge of healing and recovery from a Native perspective.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team with strong communication skills
- An understanding of the issues that impact First Nation communities and the Anishinaabek way of life
- Must possess a valid class G driver's license

Salary: $20.00 / hr

Interested people are invited to submit resumes, complete with three work related references by 4:30 pm on October 23, 2018 to Angela Desmoulin, Executive Coordinator at the address listed below or by email at request@biidaaban.com .

We would like to thank you for expressing an interest in joining our team: however only those candidates who qualify for an interview will be contacted. This project has received funding from the Ministry of Community and Social Services.
