

Entrepreneurship Training Course

Nokiiwin is partnering with the Martin Family Initiative on providing an Indigenous Entrepreneurship Training Course that is 60 hours for students to gain credits towards their grade 12 diploma or for adult learners they will receive a certificate of completion. The course is intended for the student to understand the components of starting their own business and also have a completed Business Plan for their business idea at the end of the course. The training will take place in classroom or any preferred preference within the communities. The course will be provided in the communities and taught by Teachers in each of your communities. We are extending the invitation to any interested parties in the communities on who would be also interested in taking the training course to provide the training in their communities.

The Martin Family initiative are training the instructors on who is interested in providing the training to their communities. All textbooks and training are covered through the Martin Initiative. The course is indigenous centred. The training can run with the existing programs such as Ontario Works, Economic Development and Employment Training.

Training Dates at Nokiiwin Tribal Council in Thunder Bay for the instructors training.
