

Bingwi Neyaashi
Anishinaabek

APPLY BY:
NOVEMBER 26

JOIN OUR HOUSING COMMITTEE: YOUR VOICE MATTERS!

Are you passionate about making a tangible impact in your community? Do you possess a knack for critical thinking and problem-solving? If so, we want to hear from you!

Why join the housing committee?

The housing committee plays a crucial role in shaping the future of our community's housing landscape. As a committee member, you will:

- Influence Housing Policies: Work on developing and implementing housing policies that address the needs of our diverse community.
- Engage with Residents: Connect with community members to gather their insights and feedback, ensuring that their voices are heard.
- Collaborate with Partners: Partner with local organizations and government agencies to tackle housing challenges and promote sustainable solutions.
- Drive Positive Change: Contribute to creating a more vibrant, equitable, and liveable community through strategic planning and innovative solutions.

What we are looking for:

- Critical thinkers: Individuals who can analyze complex housing issues and propose effective solutions
- Problem Solvers: People who are adept at finding creative and practical solutions to challenges
- Community Advocates: Those who are dedicated to improving the quality of life for all residents and committed to community service.

HOW TO APPLY:

Send your expression of interest to Paulette at pfacca@bnafn.ca before November 26. Include a brief statement on why you want to be involved, highlighting your relevant skills and experiences.

Your expertise and dedication can make a real difference. Don't miss this opportunity to contribute to meaningful change in our community.

Paulette Facca, Housing Coordinator: pfacca@bnafn.ca or 250-878-9175